

Interview with Iliana Encinias, 21, Biomedical Science, Not a Gamer

Q: Would you play a browser game

A: Yes I like to play shell shocked

Q: Would you prefer to play more of a competitive game or a relaxing game

A: I would prefer a competitive game

Q: Is there anything that would make you want to play a relaxing game?

A: Yes, if it was like a satisfying game like a painting game where you fill in little boxes. Those games are fun.

(DESCRIBE MINIMAL OF THE GAME)

Q: How important would a multiplayer aspect be to you?

A: I wouldn't want it. I want to play that type of game when I am alone.

Q: How important would a leaderboard, more competitive edge be to you?

A: Like voting? I would prefer something where you could vote for other peoples pictures

Q: What would you add to make this game more interesting

A: I would suggest being able to make your own pictures. (not upload, like actually paint your own)

Q: How important would music in the game be to you

A: I probably would listen to my own music

Q: How important would like a workshop be to you (make your own levels allowing others to play them)

A: that would be cool but not important.

Q: How do you feel about, (DESCRIBE THE GAME)

A: I think it would be nice and relaxing.
